

Guess the Year

Five clues, from hardest to easiest. The year is on the answer page.

1. London said goodbye to its last tram.
2. The world's first jet airliner service took off from London.
3. A thick December smog brought the capital to a standstill.
4. The Mousetrap opened in the West End — and simply never closed.
5. King George VI died, and his young daughter Elizabeth became Queen.

Your guess: _____

Answer

1952

Princess Elizabeth learned she was Queen while staying at Treetops in Kenya.