

Guess the Year

Five clues, from hardest to easiest. The year is on the answer page.

1. The Treaty of Rome was signed on the continent.
2. Harold Macmillan told Britons they'd 'never had it so good'.
3. ERNIE drew the first Premium Bond winners.
4. A beeping satellite alarmed and amazed the world.
5. The Soviet Union launched Sputnik, the first artificial satellite.

Your guess: _____

Answer

1957

ERNIE — the Electronic Random Number Indicator Equipment — was built at Bletchley Park's successor lab.