

Guess the Year

Five clues, from hardest to easiest. The year is on the answer page.

1. Britain shivered through the tail end of its coldest winter in centuries.
2. Beatlemania became a word.
3. Martin Luther King told Washington about his dream.
4. A gang stopped a Glasgow-to-London mail train and stole millions.
5. Doctor Who materialised on the BBC for the first time in November.

Your guess: _____

Answer

1963

The first Doctor Who episode aired the day after President Kennedy was shot — and was repeated a week later.