

Guess the Year

Five clues, from hardest to easiest. The year is on the answer page.

1. A new European currency was born, though the notes came later.
2. Scotland and Wales opened their own parliaments and assembly.
3. Cornwall filled with visitors staring at the sky through special glasses.
4. A total solar eclipse crossed the West Country in August.
5. The Millennium Dome opened its doors on New Year's Eve.

Your guess: _____

Answer

1999

The August eclipse was Britain's first total solar eclipse since 1927.